The Benefits

By attending the course, your employees will be reminded of the importance of identifying, preventing and controlling potential food safety hazards within your business and the appropriate corrective action to take when necessary.

On returning to the workplace, their refreshed skills will enable them to continue to develop, implement and manage an effective food safety management system within your workplace. In addition, their renewed confidence will allow them to continue to take responsibility for, and manage, your food handlers, continuing to educate and motivate them in their duties and responsibilities.

You will be able to demonstrate compliance with legislation and prove due diligence through training records and certificates. In addition, you, your business, your employees and your customers will be protected.
