ABOUT THE COURSE

Child protection and safeguarding is everyone's responsibility. This online course outlines roles, responsibilities and rights when it comes to safeguarding children. You have a responsibility to ensure that the health and wellbeing of children and young people, up to the age of 18, is safeguarded.

AREAS COVERED

The modules of this short course include:

- Recognise the potential indicators of child abuse – physical, emotional, sexual and neglect, including radicalisation, child trafficking and female genital mutilation
- Understand the importance of a child's rights in the safeguarding/child protection context
- Understand the impact a parent or carer's physical and mental health can have on the wellbeing of a child or young person, including the impact of domestic violence
- Know what action to take if you have concerns, including to whom you should report your concerns and seek advice
- Demonstrate an understanding of the risks associated with the internet and social networking
- Understand the basic knowledge of legislation

ASSESSMENT AND CERTIFICATION

Candidates will be assessed by a series of multiple-choice questions upon the completion of each of the modules. Subject to satisfactory completion, candidates are given access to an electronic Highfield quality endorsed certificate of completion (in PDF format), which they are able to print.
